

The Anchor
1949

~ FOREWORD ~

It is with pleasure that we publish this issue of The Anchor. In preparing this edition of our year book, the Staff has endeavored not only to portray a true picture of our school life, but also to convey the pride and love we feel for our school.

We hope, in the years to come, this book will awaken in your minds fond memories of happy days spent in Mayodan High School.

DEDICATION

To Mrs. Wade Lemons, in appreciation of the many services she has rendered to our high school, we lovingly dedicate our annual, the Year Book of the class of nineteen hundred forty-nine.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of Mack Martin, who looked forward to becoming a high school pupil and a star athlete, we dedicate this page of The Anchor.

~ CLASS POEM ~

We, the class of "49",
Leave twelve years of work behind.
We've helped each other from the start;
Teachers, too, have done their part.

To make our grades and do all right,
Some have studied hard from night to night.
Now we are here to say farewell,
Where we'll roam no one can tell.

Our corps of teachers through the days,
Have taught us much of books and ways.
We thank them now for all their deeds,
In helping in our class greatest needs.

For Juniors whom we leave behind,
We wish the best of heart and mind.
We hope for them complete success,
And all that brings one happiness.

Gone are problems of yesterday,
Tonight we start on our new way.
Whether our lot be low or high,
We'll always love Old Mayodan High.

CLASS HISTORY

The first day of school dawned bright and sunny as we started out to gain our twelve years of knowledge.

Our first year Mrs. Loftis and Miss Sissell helped us over our difficulties with the three R's. The next year we had Miss Mulligan and Miss Sara Poole as our leaders. Mrs. Allen and Miss Sallie Wall helped us broaden our knowledge in our third year.

Our fourth year, guided by Miss Annie Martin and Mrs. Llewellyn, was more exciting since we moved upstairs. Miss Annie Martin and Mrs. Colley were our fifth grade teachers.

Miss Brown and Mrs. Carolyn Poole led us through our sixth year and Mrs. Lemons and Mrs. Crews were our seventh grade teachers. Mrs. Crews was not able to complete the year so Mr. Puckett helped us through the latter part of the year.

When we then came to our last year in grammar school we had several teachers, Mrs. Lemons, Mrs. Fagge, Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Price. We began then to think of those last four years of school -- The Junior-Senior banquets, getting our class rings and most of all the presentations of the diplomas.

We started our ninth year, our first year in high school, very much excited because we would have different teachers every period. Our teachers were Mr. Atkins, Miss Shropshire, Miss Verne Wood and Miss Austin.

In the tenth year when we ordered our class rings, our leader was Miss Verne Wood.

The eleventh year we had one of our happiest years with Mr. W. F. McCanless. We received our class rings and had our Junior-Senior banquet at the Smith Reynolds airport in Winston-Salem.

Miss Dosier was our leader in our last year of school -- the year we had all looked forward to --- the wearing of our caps and gowns and the presentation of the diplomas.

CLASS

PROPHECY

We all know that prophets and pollsters of 1948 made some big mistakes. President Truman, for instance, was not supposed to be our president for the next four years; Mayodan is to have a broadcasting station which no one prophesied. I decided, therefore, to visit the famous mademoiselle La Rue of Greensboro, who has studied astrology. I gave her the name and birthday of each of my classmates and this is her prophecy:

Tommy Barrow -- three times Governor of the State of N. C. and leader of the new Progressive Party. His motto is "All for one and that one me." He was candidate for the Presidency last year and was defeated by one vote, cast by his campaign manager.

Libby Atkins -- well-known temperance leader has finally been elected to the highly-exalted position as permanent president of the world-wide Woman's Christian Temperance Union. Her motto is "Don't Drink - Fess Up."

Delores Fulp -- long noted for "work in the missionary fields of South Africa has recently written a new best seller, "My Sins are Numbered" or "I Should've Done Better."

Bill Robertson -- At present is very happy since his Pine Hall Basketeers have won over Sandy Ridge for the past two years. Last year Bill was voted as "Coach of the Year" by the Greensboro Daily News.

Barbara Veach -- great social leader and wife of a social leader. Noted for her lavish and charming hospitality, particularly to visiting celebrities, she has recently entertained the President, Prince of Wales, and the King of Senegambia.

Gwen Wray -- after obtaining news for the Messenger for ten years is now editor of the largest weekly paper in N. C.

Mary Lou Williams -- after wanting to be a nurse for so long, finally succeeded. She is superintendent of nurses in a hospital in Possum Town.

Ray Martin -- now Ray has finally become the Manager of the Washington Capitals Pro-basketball team.

Bessie Johnson -- after ten years Bessie is still mourning the loss of her good friend, Lulu, who went into the missionary fields. However, her married life has proved the ideal in Mayodan. Her two boys have made the Honor Roll in attendance for the past three years.

Corinne Hall -- after ten years of studying under Mr. Wootton, has finally succeeded in becoming the secretary of Mayodan High School.

Earlene Landreth -- after so many years as an amateur, is now a successful comedienne on Broadway.

Patsy Joyce -- who, we all know, worked in the Rexall Drug Store so long, is now the owner. She is also the owner of a new car.

Tommy White -- after hanging around Lefty's so much, is now owner and manager of a huge chain of Sport Shops.

GIFTORIAN

In selecting gifts that would appear appropriate for the different members of our class, your giftorian has decided that the following tokens of friendship are in order. It isn't the size or the value of the gift, but its appropriateness that counts. It is hoped that each will accept his present with the spirit in which it is given.

I. To Earlene Landreth, we present this pocket-size book of "Modern Slang" so that she may do post-graduate work on her vocabulary.

II. To Bessie Johnson, we give this alarm clock so that in later life she can continue to be punctual as in the past.

III. To Gwen Wray, we give this lunch so that he may be reminded of the many times he raided the Home Economics Department.

IV. To Delores Fulp, we give this pair of naturally curly false eye-lashes so she won't have to spend so much time on her own.

V. To Tommy White, since your nickname is "Dog", we give you this handsome dog collar.

VI. To Patsy Joyce, we give this little blue Plymouth. (Maybe you'll have a chance to use yours now, Dempsey.

VII. To Ray Martin, we give this book on "How to Make Friends and Influence People" so he can continue his friendship with the Ninth Grade.

VIII. To Barbara Veach, since she has such a great love for the opposite sex, we give this little man.

IX. To Tommy Barrow, we give this pair of scissors and a gentle hint. Cut that hair out of your eyes!

X. To Corinne Hall, we give this new evening dress, as the "Gay Ninety's" have long since passed.

XI. To Bill Robertson, since he has so many girl friends, we give this purple stick to beat them off.

XII. To Libby Atkins and Mary Lou Williams, because they like Madison so well, we give these bus tickets.

XIII. To Patsy Martin, we present this pair of glasses so that the next time she goes to Raleigh she can see where she is going.

CLASS

WILL

LAST WILL and TESTAMENT

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA
COUNTY OF ROCKINGHAM

We, the Senior Class of Mayodan High School, feeling, that after four years of life here, we have accumulated experiences and possessions that might help those less learned, do hereby take this method, in the publication of this our last will and testament, of passing on the lessons taught us by the best of all teachers, Experience; and also do hereby dispose of those peculiar possessions found among the number of said class that have made the history of this class the happy and joyful one it has been.

SECTION I

Article I. To Mayodan High School we wish to express our deepest and sincerest love. We wish to let it be known in this document that we, the class of nineteen hundred forty-nine, will ever be true to the ideals that have been so faithfully instilled into us while here in high school.

Article II. To the faculty we wish to extend our deepest gratitude, and our sincerest respect for the patience, kindness, and sympathy with which they have helped us to attain this our final goal.

Article III. To Mrs. Wade Lemons in appreciation of the many services she has rendered to our high school, we lovingly dedicate our annual, the Year Book of the class of nineteen hundred forty-nine.

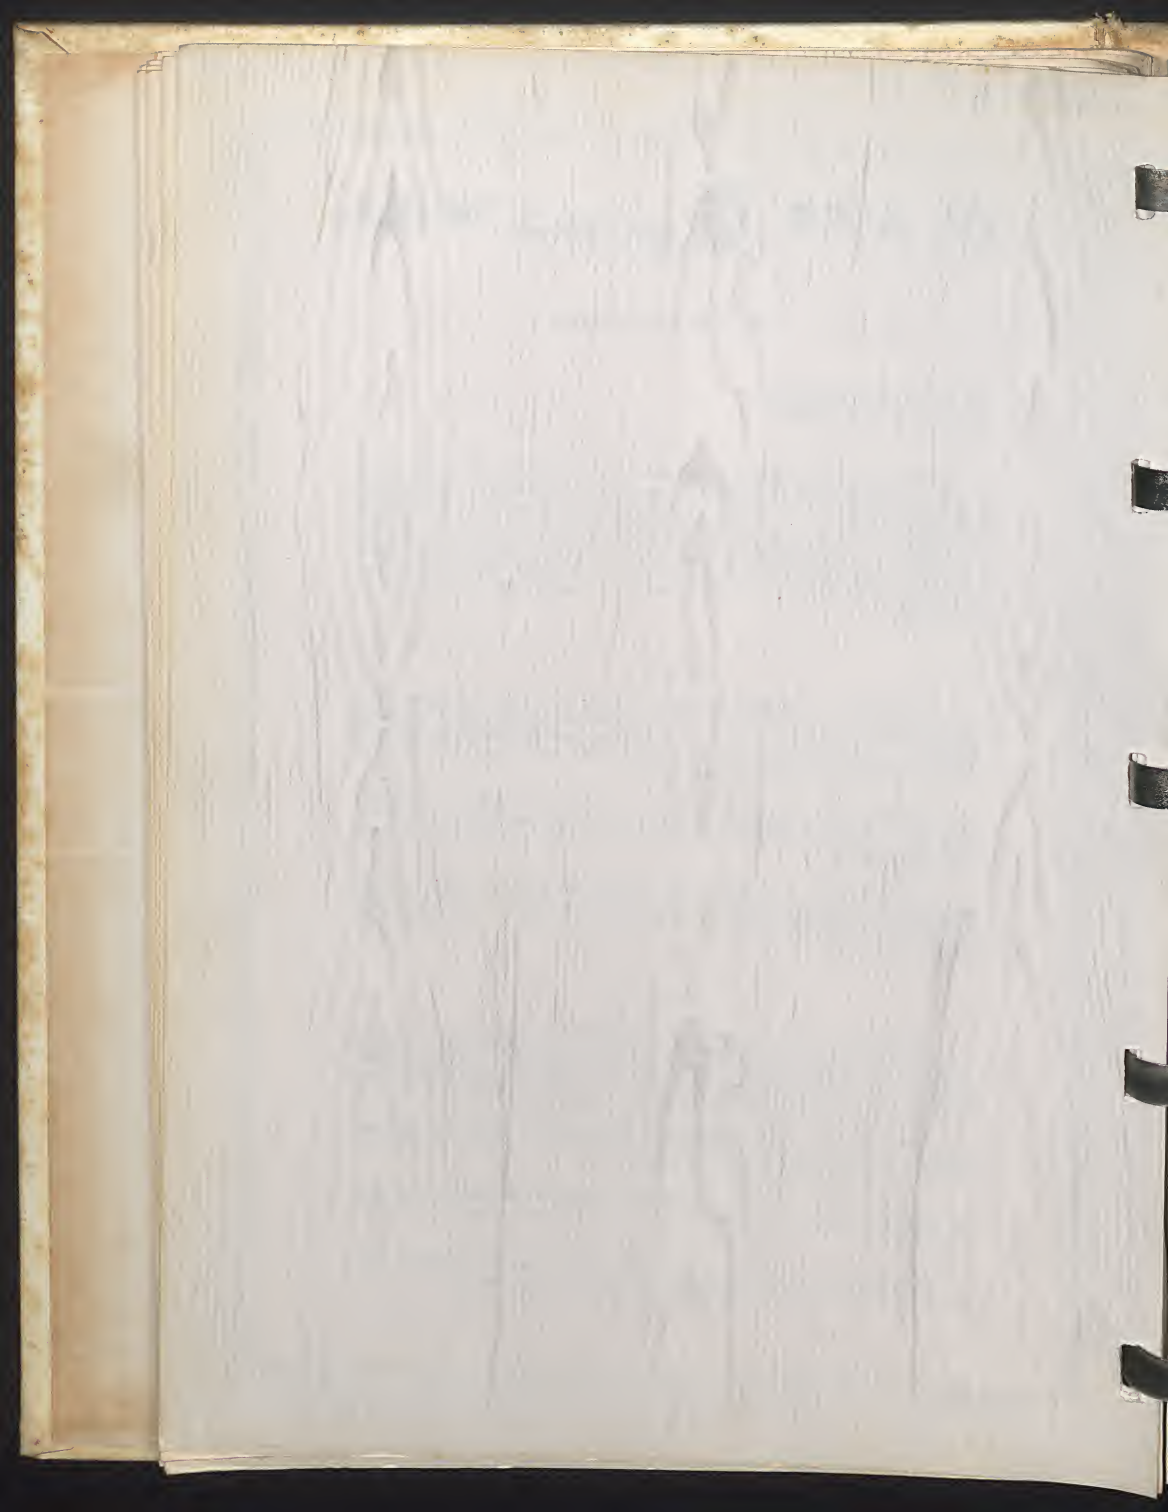

SECTION II

Article I. To the class of nineteen hundred fifty we will and bequeath all the joys of Seniorhood, the privileges and the dignity along with the responsibility. May your Senior year be filled with happiness and success, and your commencement day find you filled with the consciousness of a well-fought fight.

Article II. To the incoming Junior class we leave our patience that you may not have the worry and sweat of raising money for the Junior-Senior banquet.

Article III. To the incoming Sophomores we leave the best of wishes for year of happy good times without torment to the Freshmen.

Article IV. To the incoming Freshmen class we leave the wish for four years of joyful high school experiences.

SECTION III

Article I. Patsy Martin leaves her blond hair to Ramona Williams. (Try peroxide, Ramona.)

Article II. Dolores Fulp wills her perfect attendance record to Leon Yates.

Article III. Gwen Wray leaves his ability to study and make good grades to Wayne Anderson and Rodney Knight.

Article IV. Tommy Barrow leaves his athletic ability to Billy Glidwell and Johnny Martin.

Article V. Patsy Joyce wills her job at the soda-shop to Barbara Carter.

Article VI. Earlene Landreth leaves her loudness to Daphne Gravely and Francine Brewer.

Article VII. Ray Martin leaves his flirtation to Jack Holcomb.

Article VIII. Mary Lou Williams leaves her love for riding in a convertible Ford to Janie Lee Williams.

Article IX. Bill Robertson wills his ability to dance to Sonny Tullock.

Article X. Barbara Veach leaves her affection for the opposite sex to Gladys Hawkins.

Article XI. Tommy White leaves all his love to Nancy Hicks.

Article XII. Libby Atkins wills her love for physics to Sarah Tucker.

Article XIII. Bessie Johnson and Dolores Fulp leave their ability to get to school on time to Doris and Barbara James.

Article XIV. Corinne Hall leaves her grand grades in bookkeeping and shorthand to Kathleen Portis.

Article XV. Tommy Barrow wills his football uniform to Garland Pearson.

Article XVI. Gwen Wray leaves his success with girls to Bobby Vernon.

Article XVII. Patsy Martin leaves her devotion for geometry to Jane Pyrtle.

Article XVIII. Patsy Joyce leaves her slender figure to Joe Edwards.

Article XIX. Bill Robertson leaves his red hair and freckles to Betty Holt.

Article XXI. Earlene Landreth and Bessie Johnson leave their love for English class to Nancy Clark and Sarah Martin.

Article XXII. Ray Martin wills his ability to go rabbit hunting without hitting one to Jimmy Shreve and Ray Griffin.

Article XXIII. Tommy White leaves his love for school to Tommy Chambers.

Article XXIV. Mary Lou Williams leaves her quietness to Earl Vaughn.

Article XXV. Corinne Hall leaves her horse-laugh to Christine Smart.

Article XXVI. Libby Atkins wills her hope for a successful married life to Minnie Lee Sands.

Written and signed in accordance to the wishes of the class of forty-nine this thirty-first day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and forty-nine.

There were forty-five of us when we, exceedingly frightened, entered the activities of High School. Miss Gladys Joyce helped us through the first year.

Mrs. Donald Stilwell was our home room teacher in the sophomore year through which we passed, and were greatly influenced by Mr. W. F. McCanless.

This year we are very fortunate in having Coach D. L. Moore to help us. We are giving a class play, "Spring Fever", to finance our banquet, to be given on April 22, in honor of the seniors.

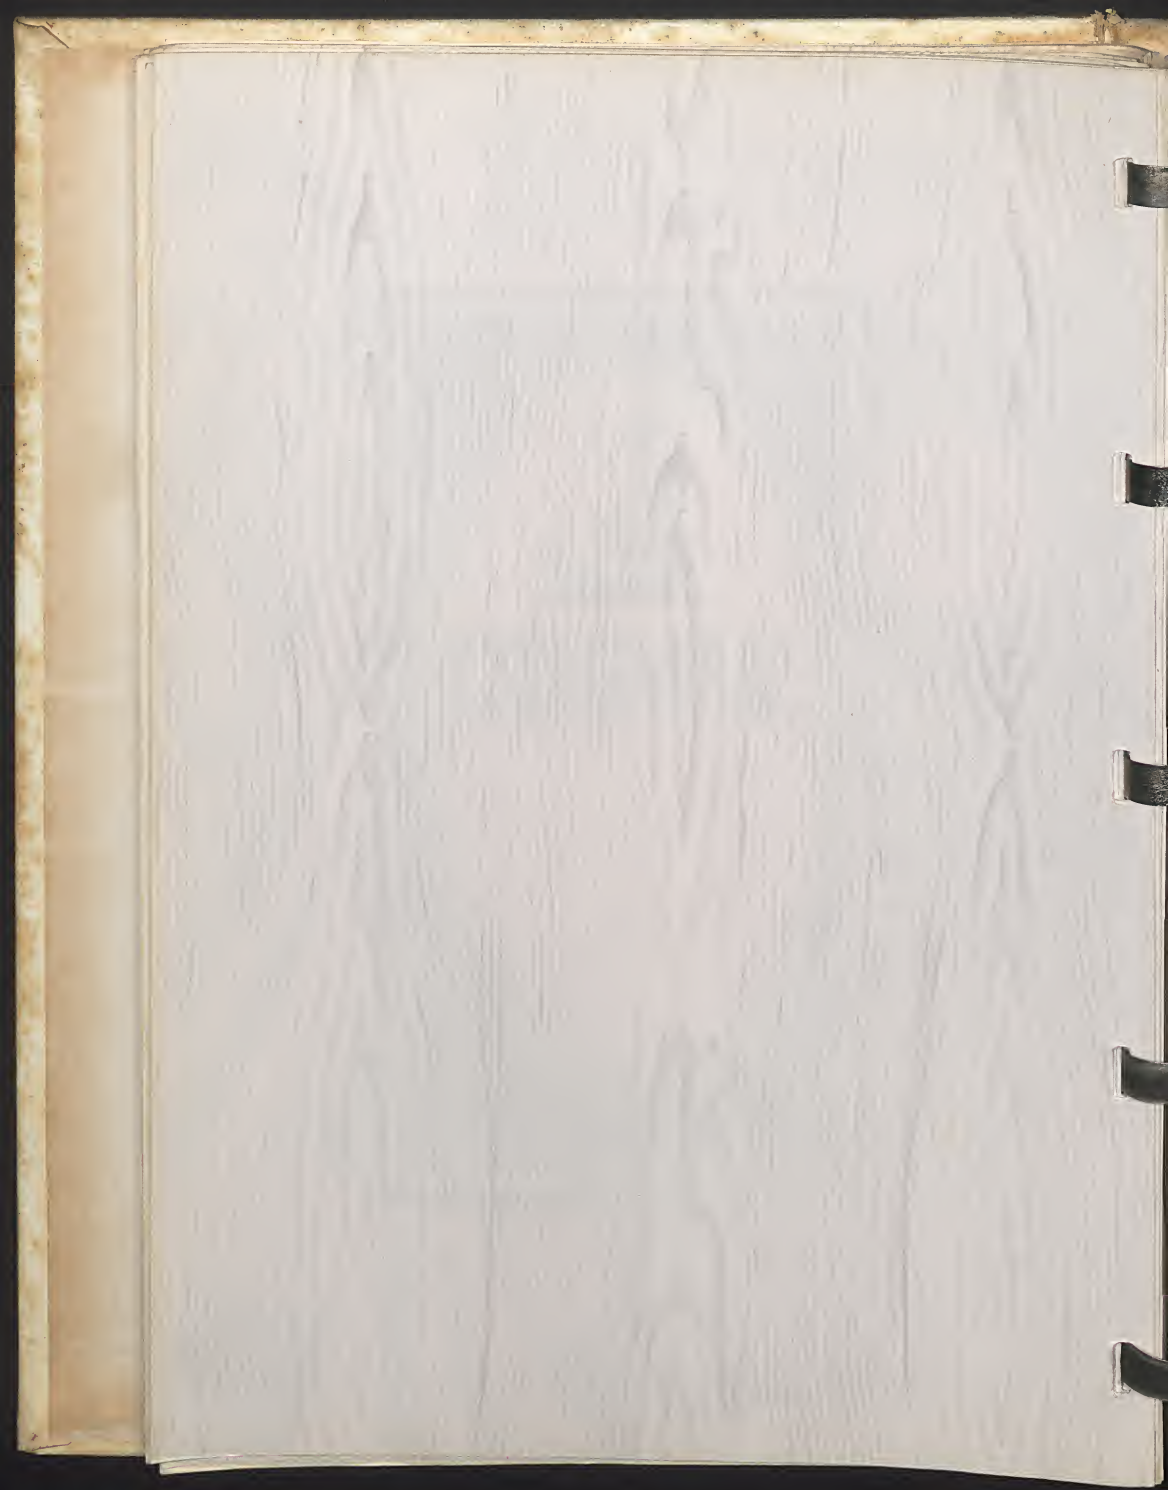

We are looking forward to our senior year with mingled regret and anticipation, for the last year can be the shortest of all.

Treasurer.....Doris James

SOPHOMORES

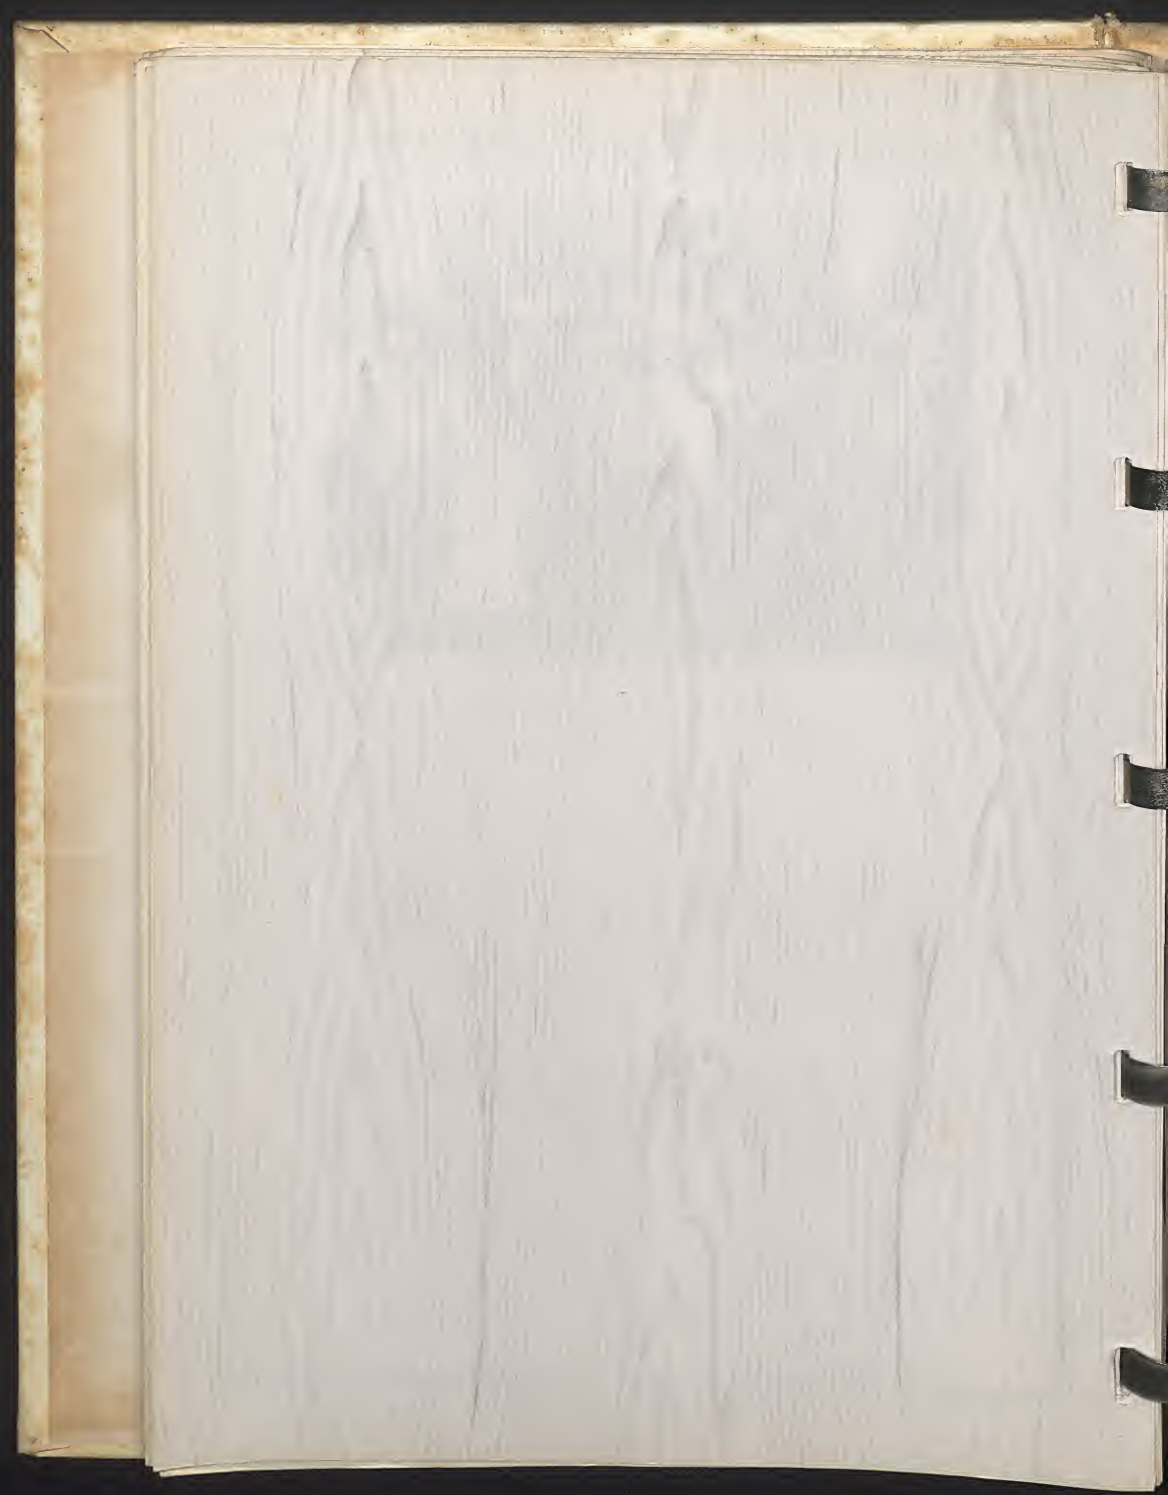

On September 3, 1948 we entered Mrs. Donald Stilwell's tenth grade room to begin our second year of high school. We started the year with an enrollment of thirty-five pupils, and have lost only four of them. Those who have dropped out are Willie Blackward, Mary Ruth Gains, Frankie Gann, and Woodie Hodge.

At the beginning of the semester we elected for class officers Bobbie Myers, President; Janice Joyce, Vice President; Linda Shreve, Treasurer; Francis Hurd, Reporter.

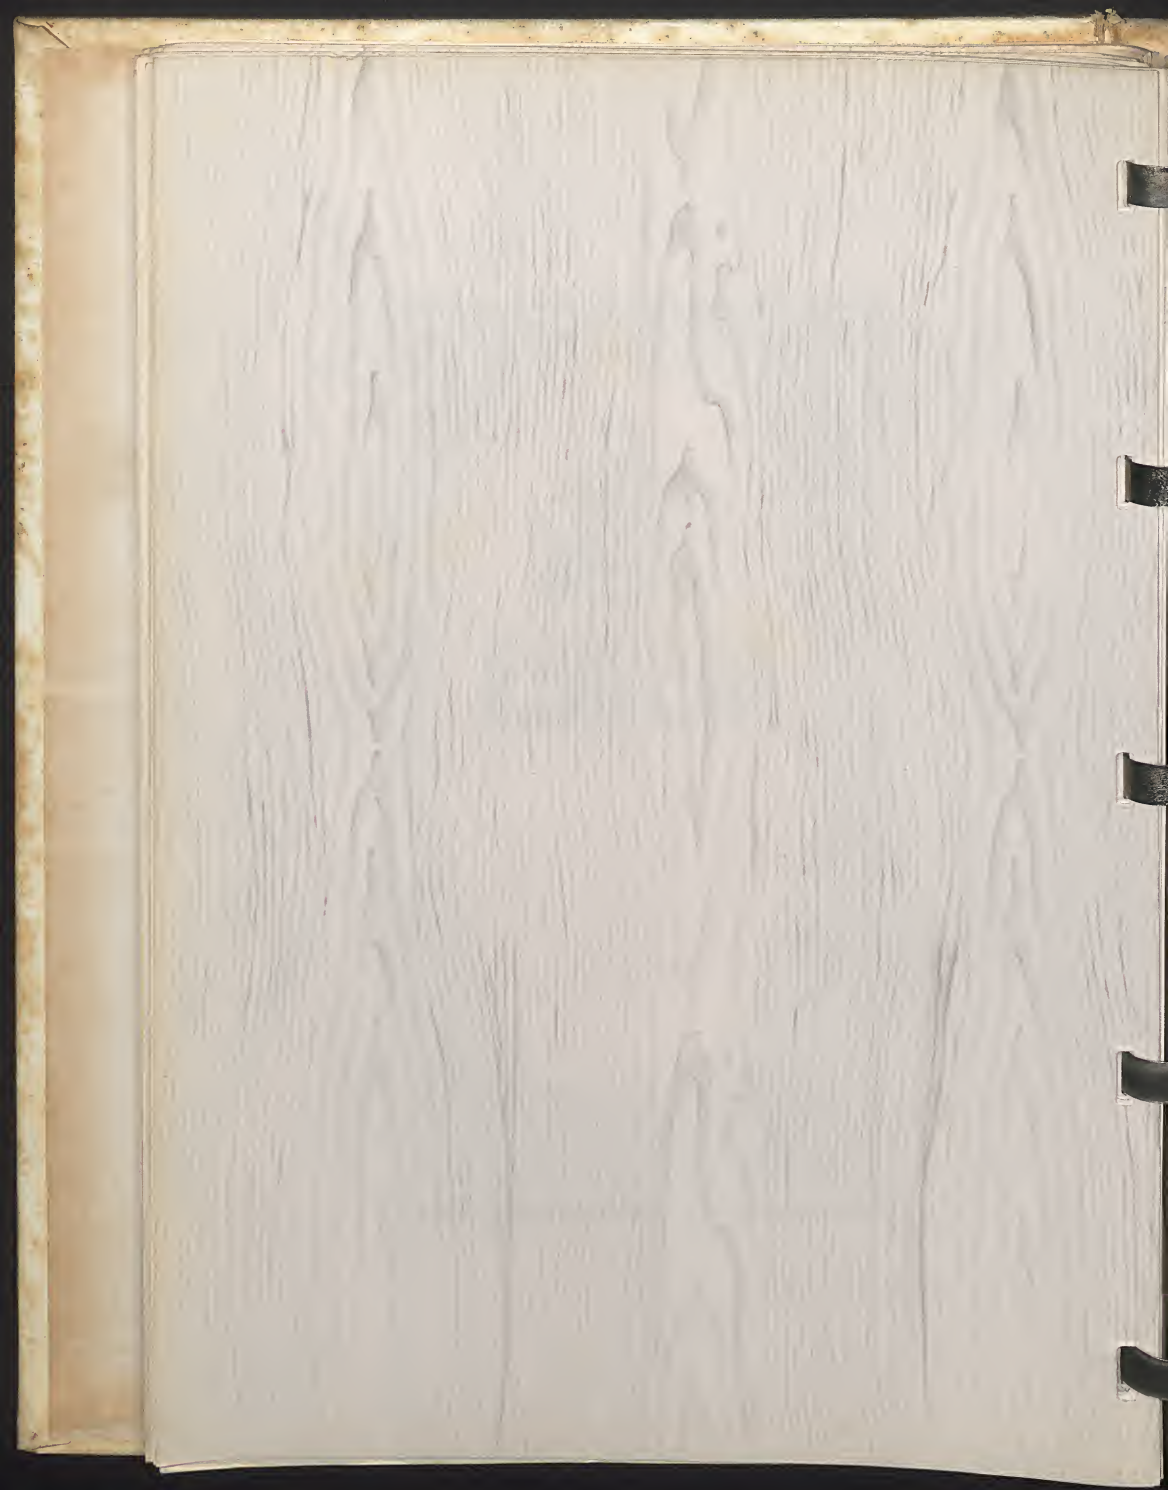

Our class has contributed to all school sports. Those who have taken active parts are: Janice Joyce, Linda Shreve, Mickey Pike, Bobbie Myers, Peggy Collins, Connie Gray, Ruth Hill, Ray Shaffer, Dan Atkins, Ray Joyce, Francis Hurd, Bud Hodge, Rahn Boyer, Bill Price, Roger Joyce, and Johnny Sisk.

We have started working for our banquet, which we will have charge of next year.

FRESHMEN

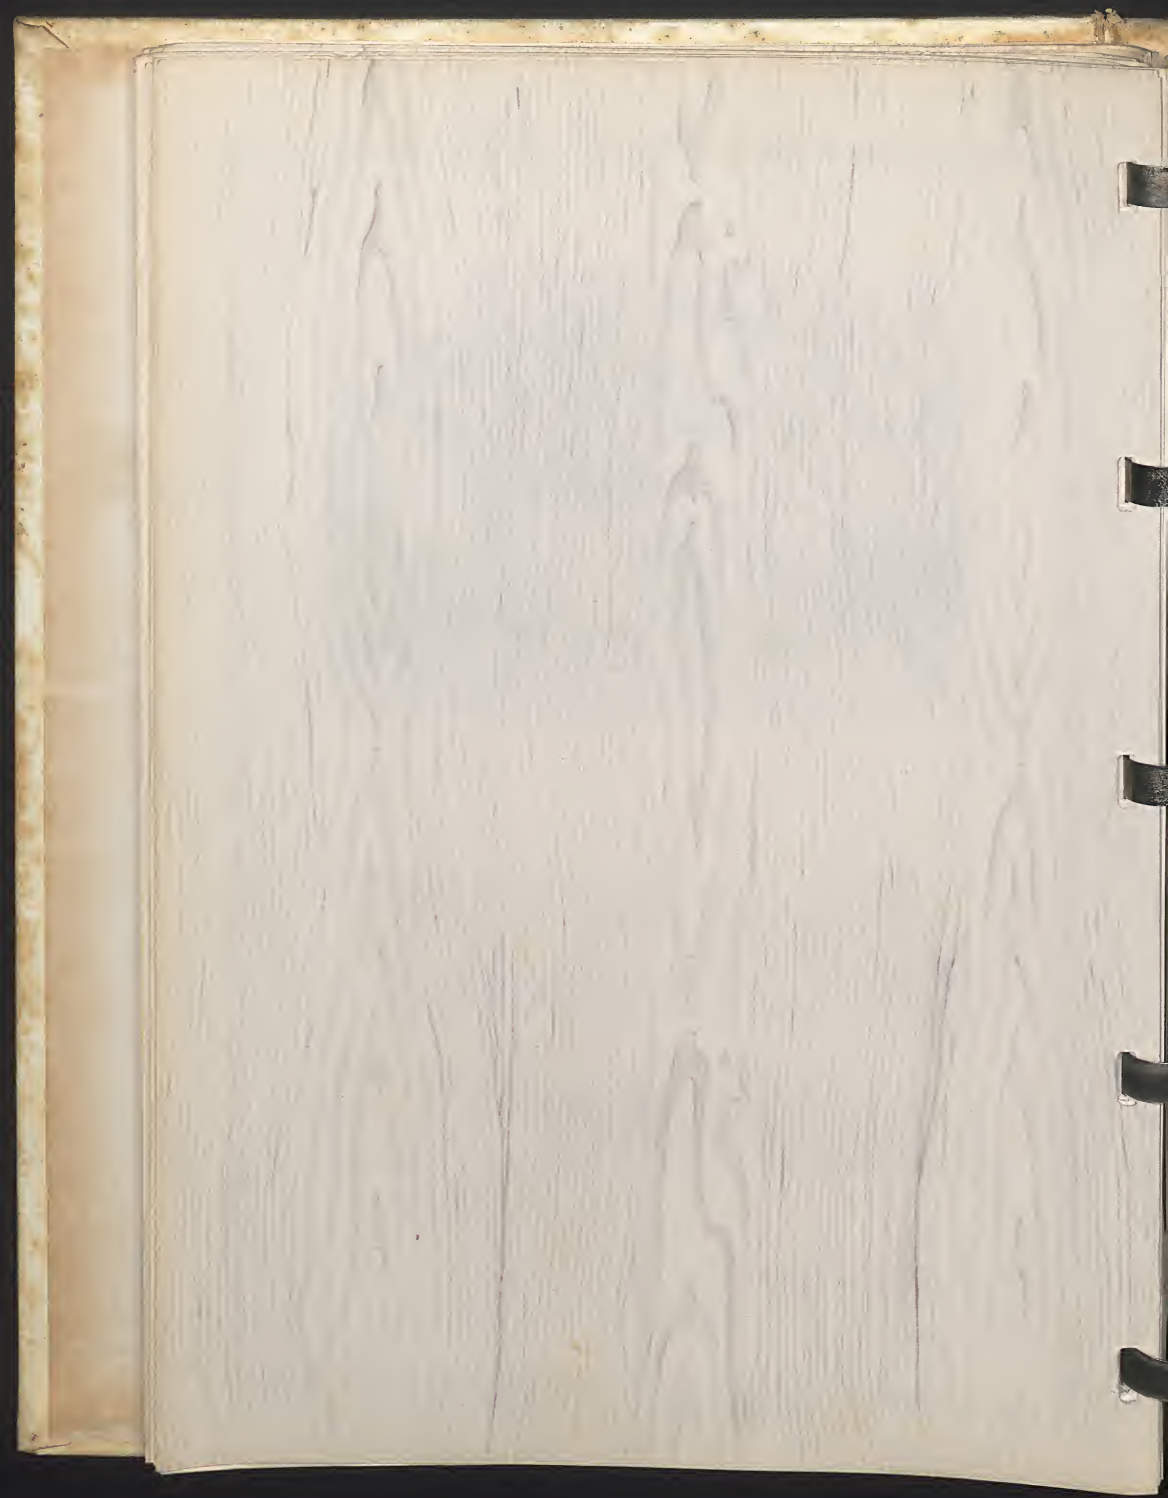

On September 14, 1943, forty-five students began their freshman year in high school. Two students, Wayne Robinson and Roberta Hoskins, joined us later. Winford Pearson, Robert Martin, and Betty Jean Wall dropped out before this year ended.

Many members of our class have taken active parts in school and extra-curricular activities. We were proud to have two of our students, J. B. Martin and Winford Pearson, on the varsity football team. Eight of our girls were members of the varsity basketball team.

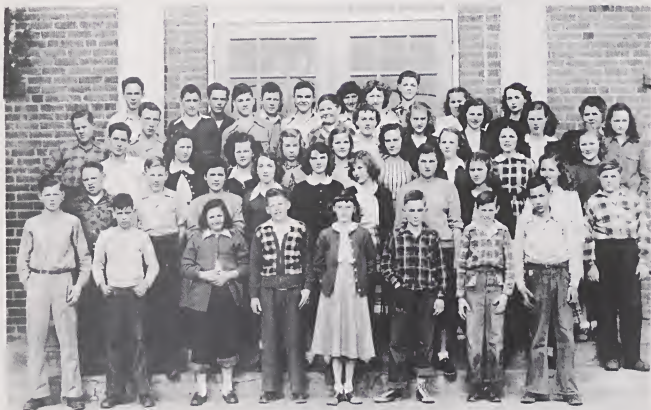

Class officers are as follows:

President.....	Gloria Anderson
Vice-President.....	Shirley Reid

The 1948 Green Hornets, Mayodan High's first football team, Class "B", turned out to be one of the finest football aggregations in this section of the state. Built around six Mayodan boys who had gained experience with other schools, the Hornets improved with every game. The season ended with a record of two victories, two ties, and one loss. It is rather significant that the first game was a loss, the next two ties, and the last two ended in victories for the improving Hornets.

At the end of the season, the players chose Tailback, Mickey Joyce and Fullback, Bill Robertson as Co-Captains for the first Mayodan High School football team.

The fall of '48 saw the beginning of a new Student Organization in Mayodan High School. In a rip-roaring election, Tommy Barrow was elected to head the Student Government. Even in its infancy, the Student Council, aided by the Student Assembly, showed promises of adding new life to Mayodan High.
